26. The Purchaser appoints as its duly constituted attorney the Supplier's company secretary from time to time to execute in the Purchaser's name and as the Purchaser's act and deed any real property mortgage, bill of sale or consent to any caveat the Supplier may choose to lodge against real property that the Purchaser may own in any Land Titles Office in any state or territory of Australia, even though the Purchaser may not have defaulted in carrying out its obligations hereunder.
27. Where the Purchaser has previously entered into an agreement with the Supplier by which the Purchaser has granted a charge, mortgage or other security over real or personal property, those charges, mortgages or other security interests will continue and co-exist with the obligations and security interests created in this agreement. The Supplier may, at its election, vary the terms of such previous charges, mortgages or other securities to reflect the terms herein.

Retention of Title

28. Title in the goods does not pass to the Purchaser until the Purchaser has made payment in full for the goods and, further, until the Purchaser has made payment in full of all the other money owing by the Purchaser to the Supplier (whether in respect of money payable under a specific contract or on any other account whatsoever).
29. Whilst the Purchaser has not paid for the goods supplied in full at any time, the Purchaser agrees that property and title in the goods will not pass to the Purchaser and the Supplier retains the legal and equitable title in those goods supplied and not yet sold.
30. Until payment in full has been made to the Supplier, the Purchaser will hold the goods in a fiduciary capacity for the Supplier and agrees to store the goods in such a manner that they can be identified as the property of the Supplier, and will not mix the goods with other similar goods.

32. The Purchaser's indebtedness to the Supplier, whether in full or in part, will not be discharged by the operation of clause 30 hereof unless and until the funds held on trust are remitted to the Supplier.
33. The Purchaser agrees that whilst property and title in the goods remains with the Supplier, the Supplier has the right, with or without prior notice to the Purchaser, to enter upon any premises occupied by the Purchaser (or any receiver, receiver and manager, administrator, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy of the Purchaser) to inspect the goods of the Supplier and to repossess the goods which may be in the Purchaser's possession, custody or control when payment is overdue.
34. The Purchaser will be responsible for the Supplier's costs and expenses in exercising its rights under clause 31. Where the Supplier exercises any power to enter the premises, that entry will not give rise to any action of trespass or similar action on the part of the Purchaser against the Supplier, its employees, servants or agents.
35. The Purchaser agrees that where the goods have been retaken into the possession of the Supplier, the Supplier has the absolute right to sell or deal with the goods, and if necessary, sell the goods with the trademark or name of the Purchaser on those goods, and the Purchaser hereby grants an irrevocable licence to the Supplier to do all things necessary to sell the goods bearing the name or trademark of the Purchaser.
